

ESGRREW LAUNCH EVENTS

12-13th April 2017, Montreal
Loyola Sustainability Research Centre
Concordia University

Environmental Humanities, Ethical Foundation and New Thinking

With a view to generating a dynamic of intercultural and inter-sectorial dialogue, and opening a common space for reflection, this launch event will lay the methodological and ethical foundation for the work of ESGRREW, and discuss the challenges and paths for dialogue and research.

Launch programme

- Preparatory Workshop for the World Conference on Humanities 2017 (invited participants).
- Discussion session with Future Earth (invited participants),
- Seminar on 'Representing the Anthropocene' (open);
- Conference on the 'Founding Principles for Intercultural & Intersectorial Dialogue on the Environment' (open).

For its process of dialogue&research, ESGRREW will endorse the UNESCO principles on diversity and intercultural dialogue; the ethics of scientific knowledge, as presented by the World Commission on the Ethics of Scientific Knowledge and Technology (COMEST) in its 2015 Reports; and the recommendations of the Commission on Truth and Reconciliation (2015 Reports) on the 'Reconciliation as a principle' based on the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, in all the dimensions of society, including law and governance

A Report on this launch event will be published on the Earth System Governance and Future Earth websites.
